The Big Book of Quotes

We know this to be true: It's a given that life is not about rainbows and sunshine all of the time. There will be days that it is going to be hard to hold your head high and put a smile on your face. However, happiness is a choice; and sometimes, you just occasionally need a boost to remind yourself of that fact. It is intuitive that people who smile and cut out negativity from their life will live longer, healthier lives. You hear it in TED talks, read it on blogs, and physicians (and psychologists) use it as a mantra. Stress and anger cause health complications that make life harder than it needs to be. It will also leave you with higher medical bills, which will cause more stress if you are struggling financially. This book is designed to help give you that small happiness boost you may require at any time. It provides a variety of quotes, new and older, to help you put perspective on your mood, regardless of where you are at in your life. It is organized for quotes to be consumed once per day, however we welcome you to peruse through the pages until you find one that resonates with you at that specific moment. No matter who you are, be it a teenager or in later stages of life, whether you are

You deserve to be happy so find it in your mind. PS: This is a simple paperback version of the eBook. It has an additional journaling feature, which that allows you to journal each morning by drawing inspiration from the quote you select for that day. More about this book: ?"We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence then is not an act but a habit" - Aristotle What is the #1 delineating factor between the poor and rich, the successful and unsuccessful, the happy and unhappy people? Self-discipline. Think about it. When you're not disciplined about your work/job, you'll stack up work and eventually you'll be stressed out and burnt out. When you're not disciplined about your finance, you'll stack up unnecessary expenses and debt and eventually be financially stressed and burnt out. You get the idea. However, what's the deal with a "365 Days Self Discipline Quotes" book? Do you agree that mindset is 80% and the strategies and mechanics are only 20% when it comes to achieving success? You know what I mean. People are always chasing the 20%, the fanciful stuffs, and thinking that ONE big idea is going to get them disciplined. It is however, all the daily reminders, influence and environment that gets people disciplined and committed every single day. I do not know what you are trying to achieve. Maybe it is your desired body, having that six packs you've always wanted. Maybe it is a breakthrough in your business, adding one more zero behind the annual income this year. It doesn't matter. What I know about you, though, is that you are someone who wants more. And that is pretty damn awesome. You want more money, more health, more happiness, more sex, more pleasure, more knowledge and more freedom and there is absolutely nothing wrong with that. Life is about growing and expanding ourselves. We are either growing a little each day or dying a little each day.
