This collection of challenging wordsearch puzzles is part of a series of books produced by the Bletchley Park Trust. Follow in the footsteps of the Codebreakers and see if you have the puzzle-solving skills needed to have worked at wartime Bletchley Park! During World War II, Bletchley Park was the workplace for thousands of people whose job was to read the encrypted messages of its enemies. Toward the end of 1941, a crossword puzzle competition was organized by The Daily Telegraph; the challenge to complete the puzzle in less than 12 minutes. A number of the competitors were subsequently invited to take part in intelligence work at Bletchley Park, and puzzles and codebreaking have been linked in the public mind ever since.

Can You Find the Magic? It's right there in front of you! Well, sort of. Disney historian Bob Sangwell's clever word search puzzles conceal key names, places, and things from over sixty of Disney's animated and live-action films. Each puzzle comes with a short historical introduction and features a hidden message. Beginning at the beginning, with Walt Disney's Laugh-O-grams, and ending with the recent animated film Coco, you'll find a word search search for each of your favorite Disney classic movies. Just like Walt Disney told his Imagineers to "plus" whatever they were working on, and make it even more magical, Bob plusses each humble word search with a hidden message, formed from the letters in the puzzle that are not used. The message relates to the topic of the puzzle and forms the basis for the short historical article that accompanies it. You'll not only find the magic you'll learn about it, too!
