What Dreams Are Made Of

Ever have a weird dream that keeps recurring? Or a dream you wish you would have again? This Dream Journal and notebook may help you unlock the secret to why that dream keeps occurring, by tracking your thoughts and emotions before you fall asleep. What were you thinking about just before falling asleep? Are you stressed about an event that's going on in your life? Research has shown that tracking your dreams over time, may lead to learning certain things about your dreams when you know what you were thinking about before going to bed which can lead to a better understanding of the dreams you are experiencing. With understanding why you have certain dreams, may also be able to change what you do and think about before going to bed. Especially, if you don't want to experience that same dream again. Start letting this notebook worry about what your past dreams were about and click Add To Cart Now Record the following information for 60 different dreams on 2 designated pages: Your thoughts and emotions before going to sleep Description of the dream Your emotions when you woke up Your thoughts or interpretation of the dream Additional area for miscellaneous notes you want to record The best way to make use of this journal is to keep it by your bed with a pen or pencil, so you can document your dream before even getting out of bed. The sooner you write it down, the easier it will be to remember what the dream was about. Dream Catcher

We all dream, don't we? At times dreams can be difficult to remember. They flit like butterflies in the breeze and capturing those butterflies (dreams) and recording them has never been easier! This undated journal is a way for you to keep a record of your dreams, a gift to your future self - something you can reflect back on. "Keeping a dream journal is a priceless gift to your future self." - Kelly Bulkeley, Ph.D
The hard part is done for you, all you need to do is fill in the blanks! There are spaces for each of the following as well as an area to 'sketch' your dream and journal. Where was the dream taking place? What time of day? Who was with you in the dream? What did you see, smell, taste, or hear? What were you feeling at the time of the dream & how do you feel now? Were there any significant symbols in the dream? Have you had this dream before? Has it changed or stayed the same? Benefits? There are benefits to dreaming and journaling? Who knew! Studies show that journaling about your dreams even if it's one line can improve your memory! Apparently, that little one line can also help you with nightmares! Imagine if you jotted down more than one line or sketched it out! You could put an end to nightmares! Journaling can help you keep track of your dreams as well. Look for reoccurring themes or
