I think that is why the second commandment stands by itself when the New Testament says that love fulfills the law. Romans 13:8 – 10: Love of Neighbor Fulfills the Law. Let's look at one other text that points in this direction. Look at Romans 13:8 – 10.

John Adams in The Revolutionary War | Boston Tea Party Museum

First appearing on July 9, 1776, Common Sense appealed to the masses by way of its simple and plainspoken ideas. Written by Thomas Paine, a corset maker from England, Common Sense criticized the idea of hereditary monarchy, and laid the blame for the dispute between England and her colonies squarely on the shoulders of King George III. It was a

That is why, even though experiences of love are often unpredictable and disconcerting, humans still aspire to love. New love, whether of new friends, one ' s children, or of a lover, can uproot our being-in-the-world, our sense of self, and break the established order of life. It is an irruption and interruption, but nonetheless welcome.
