No matter how hard we try to choose the right way forward, our destinies are planned out from very early on, our lives mapped out the way fate deems fit for us. Our beliefs will always be varied but we all remain headstrong and wilful in our selfish views that is until what you thought was fact proves to be fiction and what was unquestionable now blurs the lines of reason. Or hope becomes misery and love becomes hate. In the conclusion to Jake and Isla's story, the road to hell seems to be the easiest route available when truths turn into lies and loyalty turns to betrayal. She lives in a remote village with her father, where the decade-old trauma of watching her mother snatched by royal guards for an unknown fate still haunts her. Now, the guards are back and this time it's Lei they're after -- the girl with the golden eyes whose rumored beauty has piqued the king's interest. Over weeks of training in the opulent but oppressive palace, Lei and eight other girls learn the skills and charm that befit a king's consort. There, she does the unthinkable: she falls in love. Her forbidden romance becomes enmeshed with an explosive plot that threatens her world's entire way of life. The Melting Pot

With the fall of the Abyssial Obsidian Gold City, war has waged in Primosaec for 16 Milenius between the First bloods of Arinvial, the pure bloods of Primordia and the Rift born of evolution. With the War Games of the Aniklaziri drawing to a close in Median, once Medius, all of Trivium drift in instability with the rise of a new Champion. With the first success of the War Games election, due to Delectris's experiment, Trivium finds itself in unpredictable circumstances. With peace in Median as one cycle of 8 Milenius draws to a close, another begins as a new aspect of the War's origins arises in the Aftermath. As it comes to light the Anikhaziri are not what they appear to be, the layers of Trivium's depths become clear to the children of the Blackrose. With civil war in Primosaec ensuing over the last 16 Milenius, their champion must now uncover the mystery behind its circumstances and the puppet master pulling the strings of the Anikhaziri themselves. In the struggle for survival, the people of Primosaec have all but torn themselves and each other apart over the greatest kept secret, the primordial flower. When the lines of historical truth, spoken truth and experienced truth begin to blur, all of Primosaec finds itself tangled in the web of chaos surrounding their new champion and her mysterious origins. Teetering on the brink of utter destruction and war again, Primios now united with Blackrose must find a way to restore the shattered remains of Primosaec to create a balance of power as they find themselves in the center of this web of Chaos. The Champion that could be their redemption is the same factor that could destroy everything and sometimes you have to break something apart to fix it. Can the people of Primosaec be restored in the absence of the only thing they had in common or will their differences destroy the entire civilization they have built? Below the Blackrose Territory of Median, lays the original foundation of the middle ground Primios as the Queen of Blackroses must now confront her greatest enemy yet, herself. Trapped between two worlds, she finds there is far more to this war than she bargained for as its roots lay buried beyond the territory of Median in the second world, Primosaec. In the search for answers to uncover the facts behind her origin, she must first unravel the tangled web of truths and in this one truth is fact above all, secrets will kill and too much truth is madness. With all of Trivium at stake she is torn between the calling of architects and the War Born Path before her as one thing is clear, she has forgotten something important from the war in Median. The truth can be poison when the secrets themselves can kill as the Queen finds herself on a journey through the second world of Trivium. From Primosaec territory in the east to Arinvialat Territory in the west, there is far more than what meets the eye as the layers of truth begin to surface. When she finds herself caught in a deadly 7 tier Enochian chess game between the Aedifix, the unseen threat and herself, there is only one way to end this war over Trivium.

I Love Daisy

This book invites readers to both reassess and reconceptualize definitions of childhood and pedagogy by imagining the possibilities - past, present, and future - provided by the aesthetic turn to science fiction. It explores constructions of children, childhood, and pedagogy through the multiple lenses of science fiction as a method of inquiry, and discusses what counts as science fiction and why science fiction counts. The book examines the notion of relationships in a variety of genres and stories; probes affect in the convergence of childhood and science fiction; and focuses on questions of pedagogy and the ways that science fiction can reflect the status quo of schooling theory, practice, and policy as well as offer alternative educative possibilities. Additionally, the volume explores connections between children and childhood studies, pedagogy and posthumanism. The various contributors use science fiction as the frame of reference through which conceptual links between inquiry and narrative, grounded in theories of media studies, can be developed.
