Life Goes On

More than 30 million Americans quit their jobs in 2015. Many of them left because their jobs had become too toxic to tolerate. How does this happen? How can it be stopped? FUCKERY teaches career-driven employees how to break the bad habits that destroy people and undermine performance. By mapping negative habits, you'll reclaim lost productivity, repair disabled communication, and root out what threatens success. Transform "I can't wait to leave" into "I'm excited to be a part of this team."

Keeping It Real

An Amazon Editors' Best Book of December 2018 "Art will wake you up. Art will break your heart. There will be glorious days. If you want eternity you must be fearless." —from The Museum of Modern Love Arky Levin has reached a dead end. Unexpectedly separated from his wife, he suddenly has the space he needs to work composing film scores—but none of the peace of mind he needs to create. As he wanders the city, guilty and restless, it's almost by chance that he stumbles upon an exhibition that will change his life. The installation the fictional Arky discovers—which is based on a real piece of performance art that took place in 2010—is inexplicably powerful. Visitors to the Museum of Modern Art sit across a table from the performance artist Marina Abramovi?, for as short or long a period as they choose. Although some go in skeptical, almost all leave moved. And the participants are not the only ones to find themselves changed by this unusual experience: Arky finds himself drawn to the exhibit. He returns day after day to watch other people sit with Abramovi?—and as he does, he begins to understand what might be missing in his life and what he must do.

Spiritual Lovemaking

"One full of light, another of dark bitterness - can two such different souls find their happiness together?" Livy arrives on the plantation angry and resentful that she was sold off from the only home she has known, her family left behind forever. The first time she sees Zeb, she sneers to see a slave working in the hot sun who smiles from sunup to sundown. He finds slavery tolerable? Livy will never accept it! No matter that Zeb's sweet spirit draws her, she will be free whatever it takes. Zeb is smitten by Livy the first time he sees her, but it's a challenge to even get her to say good morning. Brought up to find happiness and hope in every day, he begins his campaign to win her, his easy-going manner never faltering - until slavery's big boot crushes the spirit of his niece Faith, the child he loves as if she were his own. Even if it means he can't have Livy, he has to save Faith from living a cruel life among the master's family. From different paths, Zeb and Livy arrive at the safe haven hidden in the swamps, a place of wild flowers and abundance. But like the first Eden, Orchid Island harbors treachery and heartache. Leaving their refuge behind, Zeb and Livy and their new family begin the journey to their true heaven-on-earth.

Real Love for Real Life

Underneath these gang tattoos beats a heart three times a year. I'm a slow puncture death, a murderer, a rapist, and a number. I killed my best friend. Death doesn't stalk me, it walks ahead of me by twenty-eight paces. I went home after I sold my soul to the devils. I thought life would begin, I was a free man, instead within days the bullets fly and my last hope dies with the slain. There is nothing left to live for in this world. I belong to the 28s, I'll always belong to the 28s. The woman across the road judges me, she hates me, and takes every opportunity to let me know it. Yet, somehow, when grief etched our names down in the book of the dead, we dared be bold enough to find love. I'm not a good man, and I'm not pretty. I come from the Cape Flats where my life was reduced to a prison cell number. In all this ugliness I found beauty, innocence, and forgiveness. I can't forgive myself for the crimes I've committed, but I'll die trying to earn hers. In a world where nothing matters, she does.

What Real Love Taught Me

Tall, handsome, and a hard worker, Luke Marshall could have his choice of women. One obstacle stands in his way. He loves his girlfriend deeply. He's ready to commit to spending the rest of their lives together. Luke knows he's not the romantic, talkative type, but he's real and he's honest. One thing is perfectly clear: no one could love her more than he does. A few years ago, beautiful, blue-eyed Jenalyn Thompson was in a serious relationship that went south.

She's no longer interested in a long-term commitment, except with her beloved Siberian husky. Jenalyn learned one thing from her failed relationship: guys could say they loved you, but when the going got tough, they didn't always stay the course. She wasn't going through that again. Love and commitment are complicated. Young love, influenced and pressured by the expectations of family and friends, can be smothered before it has the chance to find its way. Standing on the edge of a lifetime, this young couple is about to learn what real love is and that second chances don't always happen. Their lives will be turned upside down in ways that they could never imagine. Ultimately, when they have no control over their circumstances, God will use the most unexpected people and situations to open their eyes to blessings right in front of them. Will they discover the truth that true love has no time limit or will it be too late?

Grandmothering

Since high school everyone thought Jake Bender would end up behind bars; after all, he comes from a long line of bad boys. He spent years away from the place he called home. When he finally comes back, everyone thinks he's just a punk kid all grown up who's now running a dive bar called The Night Club. What they don't know is he heads up a special task force, which cleans up neighborhoods and makes them safe again. Stormy Ryan has always felt more comfortable with her books than with people. She loves to spend her days within the pages of her books. When her second-hand bookstore is robbed for the third time in as many months, her employees quit leaving her to run the shop on her own. With the pressure of having to deal with her shop and people, not to mention the declining neighborhood, she is at the end of her rope. When closing up her shop late one night, she is held up and the neighborhood bad boy saves her, putting both of them at the forefront of a psychotic's obsession. Being bad has never looked so good.

LOVE is the highest aspiration we should have! Chris Sain Jr. relationship expert among other things, has coined this generations quest for love as the Love & Hip Hop Era where finding real love has been an evasive rollercoaster ride that has eluded most men and women. Everyone is on a quest to find real love. Who isn't looking for love? Love is the goal for everybody in life! At a time where technology, freedom of expression, social media and instant gratification has precedent over love, trust and commitment, men and women alike are in and out of relationships, abandoning friendships, quitting on marriages and giving up on love. Chris Sain Jr's, Finding Real Love in the Love & Hip Hop Era offers a unique, unfiltered perspective as to why love has been so hard to conquer. Chris Sain Jr. provides a modern viewpoint and compelling insights to the tough questions women often ask: - Why does the love feel so real in the beginning and the reasons why it fades away? - Why do men fall in love with "ratchet" but are afraid to pursue class? - Why does your man insist on living with you but refuse to marry you? and much more!!!

How to Love is the third title in Parallax's Mindfulness Essentials Series of how-to titles by Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh, introducing beginners and reminding seasoned practitioners of the essentials of mindfulness practice. This time Nhat Hanh brings his signature clarity, compassion, and humor to the thorny question of how to love. He distills one of our strongest emotions down to four essentials: you can only love another when you feel true love for yourself; love is understanding; understanding brings compassion; deep listening and loving speech are key ways of showing our love. Pocket-sized, with original two color illustrations by Jason DeAntonis, How to Love shows that when we feel closer to our loved ones, we are also more connected to the world as a whole. With sections on Love vs. Need, Being in Love, Reverence, Intimacy, Children and Family, Reconciling with Parents, and more, How to Love includes meditations you can do alone or with your partner to go deep inside and expand your own capacity to love. Scientific studies indicate that meditation contributes tremendously to well-being, general health, and longevity. How to Love is a unique gift for those who want a comprehensive yet simple guide to understanding the many different kinds of love, along with meditative practices that can expand the understanding of and capacity for love, appropriate for those practicing in any spiritual tradition, whether seasoned practitioners or new to meditation.

The Art of Asking

FOREWORD BY BRENE BROWN and POSTSCRIPT FROM BRAIN PICKINGS CREATOR MARIA POPOVA Rock star, crowdfunding pioneer, and TED speaker Amanda Palmer knows all about asking. Performing as a living statue in a wedding dress, she wordlessly asked thousands of passersby for their dollars. When she became a singer, songwriter, and musician, she was not afraid to ask her audience to support her as she surfed the crowd (and slept on their couches while touring). And when she left her record label to strike out on her own, she asked her fans to support her in making an album, leading to the world's most successful music Kickstarter. Even while Amanda is both celebrated and attacked for her fearlessness in asking for help, she finds that there are important things she cannot ask for—as a musician, as a friend, and as a wife. She learns that she isn't alone in this, that so many people are afraid to ask for help, and it paralyzes their lives and relationships. In this groundbreaking book, she explores these barriers in her own life and in the lives of those around her, and discovers the emotional, philosophical, and practical aspects of THE ART OF ASKING. Part manifesto, part revelation, this is the story of an artist struggling with the new rules of exchange in the twenty-first century, both on and off the Internet. THE ART OF ASKING will inspire readers to rethink their own ideas about asking, giving, art, and love.

One Last Promise

The genuine woman is a woman whose faith is true and manifested by the way she loves God and loves and cares for others; whose beauty comes from a gentle and humble spirit; and when trials and tribulations come her way, does not ask "Why God?" but rather "What, God, are you doing in my life?" The genuine woman seeks God's wisdom rather than wisdom from the world, and is set free from the bondage of her old way of doing life to walk in the newness of life that can only be found in a life lived for Jesus. Your study in the Book of James will give you practical advice for living out your faith journey to the glory of God in the face of pressures and difficulties that often come your way. While maturing in Christ requires you to grow in the knowledge of God's word, James tells us that growing in the Lord will only come when you apply what He is saying to you through His word. The world is watching to see the substance of your faith by the way you live out your faith and walk the talk each day. James show you how to do this in a genuine way.
