A New Translation From The French By Marion Wiesel Night is Elie Wiesel's masterpiece, a candid, horrific, and deeply poignant autobiographical account of his survival as a teenager in the Nazi death camps. This new translation by Marion Wiesel, Elie's wife and frequent translator, presents this seminal memoir in the language and spirit truest to the author's original intent.

Bing: Secrets A Memoir Of Survival

First, writing such a raw memoir requires courage. To lay yourself bare, to expose your secrets, your shameful thoughts transparently is brave. Roxanne Gay didn't "beautify" her life. Didn't hide and wasn't superficial like some famous people when writing their autobiographies. She told about it like it is.

The memoir was not a fast read for me, but the content was well written, with excellent details, documents, photographs, and history. War, Holocaust, Jews, identity, assimilation, love, missing links, family secrets, and so much more, fill the pages of 'When Time Stopped: A Memoir of My Father's War and What Remains'.

Six-Word Memoir: What It Means and Best Examples | Reader

The Officer's Daughter is a piercing memoir that explores with unflinching honesty what parents can and cannot do to protect their children, the reverberations of violence on survivors' lives, and the overwhelming power of forgiveness, even in the face of unspeakable tragedy.
